U. S. FARMERS FORM BLOC TO ENFORCE LEGISLATION

Delegates From 12 States At First Meeting

OPPOSE BONUS

Congressmen Working Against Proposed Sales Tax

(China Press Service)

Washingon, February 21.—At a conference of Representatives from 12 agricultural states, it was decided to form a national organisation to be called the United Farmers' Bloc. It has adopted a constitution and arranged for committeemen from precinct to national ones and will invite other states to join in this movement by appointing their committeemen. The object is said to be to endorse candidates for national offices already in the field.

USE POWER AS LASH

The power of the farmers' bloc is now being used as a lash by those opposing the sales tax as a means of raising revenue for the soldiers' bonus bill if it is passed by Congress. Twenty-two congressmen now are circulating petitions against this method of raising revenue. They hope to secure enough signatures to convince the committee which has the bill in hand of the opposition of the country generally.

In case the petitions are not effective, leaders of the movement say, they will oppose the bill on the floor of the house and assert that in this event the farmers' bloc will come out solid against the tax.

TRY FOR NEW PARTY

Chicago, February 21.—At a conference composed of representatives of farmers societies, laborites and clergymen held here an effort was made to launch a new political party from a coalition between the farmer and the labor unions, but labor is fighting shy.

Congressman Morris said that this was the most significant event in the American labor movement in a generation, but William Johnson, chairman of the International Machinists Association laughed at the idea of a new party, saying the time was not ripe.

Despite this opposition which gave the plans of the convention a disagreeable setback, it was announced after the meeting that a new party would be functioning by 1924.

JAPAN TO REDUCE ARMY, BUT PLANS MORE MUNITIONS

Military Authorities Will Submit Plan To Committee

(Eastern News Agency)
(Exactly as sent)

Tokio, Feb. 22.—In connection with the question of reducing land forces and of shortening the term of military service the military authorities are expected to lay a draft proposal before the committee meeting to be held on the 24th instant.

In the event of approval, the draft proposal, along with the naval restriction Bill are expected to be introduced in the extraordinary session of the Imperial Diet to be convened in August next.

These proposals, if approved, will be enforced as from September of the present year. According to these proposals, some 60,000 soldiers are to be retired, by which military expenses of Yen 15,000,000 will be saved, but funds for the manufacture of weapons, amounting to Yen 7,000,000 to Yen 8,000,000, are to be increased, resulting in the savings of about Yen 4,000,000 for the fiscal year, 1922-1923.

GAMING PALACE ON THE BORDER RAIDED BY POLICE

Thirty-eight Arrested In Sumptuous Den; $1,700 Bail Forfeited

Three of thirty-eight men arrested in a raid made on an elaborate and notorious gambling palace frequented by wealthy Chinese, at 4 Jessfield Road Tuesday night appeared before Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Yui at the Mixed Court yesterday and were fined $10 each. The other 35 forfeited a total of $1,750 bail money through their non-appearance.

The establishment in question is situated on the dividing line between the International Settlement and Chinese territory and is registered at the Spanish Consulate as the "Spanish-Chinese Commercial Association." Owing to these facts the police, who have been watching the place for some time, waited to make their raid until they could be sure of catching the gamblers red-handed. The raiding squad of Tuesday evening was led by Sub-Inspector Foley and Detective Sergeant Robertson of Bubbling Well station. Besides making the 38 arrests the police seized a considerable quantity of gambling paraphernalia and two opium pipes. They found the place to be sumptuously furnished, with a billiard room and various elaborately fitted up private rooms. According to the Chinese press recently one wealthy young Chinese lost $160,000 in one hour's play in the establishment.

When the case was called yesterday Mr. L. K. Kentwell appeared to defend, but his argument was interrupted by Assessor Blackburn, who remarked that the address in question was the most notorious gambling den in Shanghai and that an attorney's appearance in an attempt to defend the men was futile.

Gen. Wu Getting Ready To Fight

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankow, Feb. 21.—Though rumor has it that General Wu Pei-fu arrived here today, it has come to light that this report was without foundation, for General Wu is still in Loyang, where he is training his troops. The reason for this is said to be due to his expectation that sooner or later armed conflict cannot be avoided between the Fengtien and Chihli factions.

In this connection, General Wu is reported to have under contemplation a plan (1) to organise five more mixed brigades at Loyang, (2) to unify and bring under his control the three Arsenals of Hanyang, Kunghsien and Techow to manufacture arms and ammunitions, and (3) to effect a good connection between Chihli, Shantung, Honan, Hupeh, Shensi, Kiangsi and Kiangsu in order to complete military preparations.

EPIDEMIC OF SMALL POX IS NOW CHECKED

Report Of Health Department Shows No New Foreign Cases For The First Time

For the first time since November when the spread of small pox developed into serious proportions in Shanghai the weekly report of the Health Department fails to record a single case among the foreign population and this may be taken as an indication that the epidemic now definitely is checked. In other epidemics the period has continued for a long time and the fact that the disease has been brought under control is attributed to the wholesale campaign of vaccinating that has been carried forward in both the Chinese and foreign communities.

Small pox has not been wholly stamped out and it is foreseen that it probably will persist among the Chinese for several weeks, as the health records show that twelve Chinese died from the disease in the past week.

The department's weekly report shows that scarlet fever is making itself felt in the Settlement as in the period five Chinese died from scarlet fever and five cases among foreigners were reported.

McCarthy, Admiral Line Official, Back

Mr. G. J. McCarthy, assistant general passenger agent of the Admiral Line, returned to Shanghai yesterday from a two months visit in the South. While away Mr. McCarthy visited Manila, Hongkong and Canton. Mrs. McCarthy, who has been visiting at her home in America while Mr. McCarthy was away, is returning to Shanghai on the Pine Tree State, of the Admiral Line, which is due to reach this port on March 7.

Washington Birthday Ball, With Thousand Attending, Is Highly Successful Affair

Premier Annual Social Event Of American Colony Staged In Colorful Setting At Town Hall

Staged in a colorful setting and with over 1,000 people in attendance the Washington's Birthday ball, premier annual social event of the American colony was held last night at the Town Hall and added another success to the list of such affairs given under the auspices of the American Company, S. V. C.

Bunting and vari-colored lighting effects figured lavishly in the decorative scheme for the ball and the special entertainment features included tableaux and the presentation of the pageant of dances of the various American war periods, beginning with the Revolution of 1776. The regular dance program was pleasingly broken up by the entertainment items and by a particularly appealing and well served supper, following which the dancers carried on well into the morning.

COLORED LIGHT EXHIBITION

Streamers of colored electric globes were the basis for the lighting arrangements and six huge blue, star encrusted spheres suspended from the ceiling were effectively used during some of the dance numbers. The hall was swathed in red, white and blue bunting and in addition to the traditional illuminated oil painting of the first President, the decorations included a light-studded American coat of arms which was hung on the South wall.

On a flag-draped dais at the West end of the auditorium the special guests of the evening, including Consular, Municipal and S.V.C. officials and officers, were received and here also the special numbers were performed.

TABLEAU PLEASING

Early in the program there was an impressive tableau built round the figure of the "Goddess of Liberty." As the curtains were raised the feminine symbol of American freedom was seen standing in the center of the stage, dressed in the Red, White and Blue with an alternating flood of red, white and blue light playing upon her. The American flag provided the immediate background, flanked by the national colors of the Allied nations and the band played the "Star Spangled Banner" until the draperies fell on the scene.

The war-times dance pageant was begun shortly before midnight and was carried off in style which reflected great credit upon the participants and the experts who had the rehearsing in charge. Beginning with the Minuet of Revolutionary days and running on through the periods of the gavotte, polka, Virginia reel and the dance figures of the present day, the numbers were presented in picturesque and appealing fashion. Costumes of the period were faithfully and colorfully reproduced and the intricacies of the various measures of the past were gone through with wonderful accuracy and grace.

MANY IN PAGEANT

Following are the names of those taking part in the pageant: Polka—Mrs. L. K. Taylor, Mrs. W. Christian, Miss Dorothy Seifert and Mrs. C. F. Franklin and Messrs. Savale, Burroughs, E. Meyerink and S. F. Smith; the Gavotte—Mrs. Gattrell, Miss Allene Thornburgh, Miss Gretchen Fitkin and Miss Madeline Harris and Messrs. John Washburn, A. D. Barnes, E. D. Alexander and Gattrel; the Quadrille—Miss Joyce Merriman, Miss Edna Lee Booker, Mrs. F. W. Schlobohm and Miss Ruth Weiss and Messrs. Heinzerling, Schlobohm, Potter and Bourne, and the Minuet—Mrs. J. Gregg, Miss Fern Nelson, Miss Vera Bernhardt and Miss Margaret Powell and Messrs. Hale, Whitescarver, Smith and Campbell.

The dances were directed by Mme. Koukocheff.

The music for the pageant was provided by specially drilled musicians of the Municipal Orchestra while the dance program was rendered in highly pleasing fashion by Harry Kerry's jazz artists and by the Municipal players.

Punch and other refreshments were served throughout the evening and the supper which was provided after midnight was voted by the assemblage as by no means one of the least of the enjoyable features of the ball.

Turkey roasted in the style which has raised the bird almost to the plane of the national eagle, "homeside" ham and all the other ingredients which might be expected in a real American menu were in evidence—for a brief period.

The social reporter, calling up for the last time, after running over again the lengthy list of viands which, he or she, had sampled in his, or her, repertorial capacity, implores special mention for the pies. The pumpkin variety, he, or she, insisted, was of a quality not to be equalled in New England or the Middle West. The description of the apple pastry got lost in a burble of hysterical, pancreatic panegyrics at the other end of the telephone line.

CHINESE CROWD ABOUT STATION AFTER STABBING

Armed Constables Disperse Mob Which Follows Japanese

Following the stabbing of a ricsha coolie by a Japanese on Urga Road Tuesday afternoon a mob of nearly a thousand Chinese collected, swarmed about the Japanese, followed him to Harbin Road police station and finally had to be dispersed by armed constables.

The Japanese alleged to have done the stabbing is named Sunayama and lives at 330 Woosung Road. It is stated that he hired the ricsha coolie at Yalu Road bridge to take him to Wuchow Road, near the market, and that on discharging the man he paid him only three coppers. There was an altercation and the Japanese is alleged to have drawn a sheath knife and stabbed the coolie, who was removed to St. Luke's Hospital, but is not seriously injured.

A short time after the incident a report was received at Harbin Road police station that a Japanese riding in a ricsha on Urga Road had been assaulted by Chinese, supposedly part of the crowd which gathered following the previous affair.

JAPANESE DIET WRESTLING WITH CONTROL BILL

Let Thoughts Fight Each Other, Tokio Newspaper Suggests

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, Feb. 21.—Judging by the tone of the press here with regard to the bill which proposes to enact regulations for the control of Bolshevists and Socialists in Japan, and which has been laid by the Government before the Diet, while they are all agreed in stating that they cannot help recognising the spirit of the Bill by which the Government contemplates inflicting a severe punishment upon ultra Bolshevists, they also entertain apprehensions that the regulations in the Bill are too strict and that the enforcement of this Bill may not only obstruct the free study of thoughts but also tend to degrade the nation so far as thoughts are concerned.

In this connection, the Tokio Nichi Nichi states that the best way to control pernicious and dangerous thoughts is to employ such means of thought remedy as to allow thoughts to fight with each other and that attempts to remedy dangerous thoughts inside prisons are the worst form of remedy.

JOFFRE HERE MARCH 10

According to the Chinese Press, definite news has been received that Marshall Joffre will arrive at Mukden on February 25 and he will go directly to Peking. He will leave Peking on March 7 and will be in Shanghai on March 10, the report states.

New Method For Bootlegging

ALBERT Wheeler, who works at one of the large fish markets in New York, claims the distinction of having discovered a species of fish stuffed with quarts of whiskey. He made this startling discovery while sorting a load of cod just received from New England fishing banks. Prohibition agents are investigating this new system of boot legging.

DE VALERA URGES SINN FEINERS TO PASSIVELY RESIST

Convention Adjourned In Effort To Frame Compromise

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 21.—Moving the rejection of the treaty in the Ard Feis or Sinn Fein National Convention, Mr. de Valera recommended passive resistance as an alternative to a resumption of war.

Mr. Arthur Griffith moved an amendment approving the treaty but the debate developed a tendency to favor a compromise based on the postponement of the elections until a constitution had been drafted.

The debate has been adjourned until tomorrow to enable the leaders to endeavor to establish an agreement.

London, Feb. 21.—The Ard Feis assembled in Dublin this morning. The delegates present numbered 2,700. Mr. de Valera moved the rejection of the Irish Treaty.

London, Feb. 21.—It appears that two soldiers murdered in Dublin yesterday, one of whom was a sergeant, were the victims of an ambush which had previously attacked two military cars and set one of them on fire.

Questioned in the House of Commons today, Mr. Winston Churchill said that a detachment of the Provisional Government's and Crown Forces was investigating the crime. He was assured, he said, that the Provisional Government was doing its utmost to bring the perpetrators to justice.

He added that the military had recently been ordered to fire if assailed. Such firing in self-defence, Mr. Churchill concluded, did not violate the Treaty.

The second officer wounded in Dublin yesterday had died.

Export Trade Outlook Gloomy

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 22.—Speaking at Leeds yesterday Colonel Armstrong, President of the Federation of British Industries, said that the extensive information at the disposal of the Federation showed that there was small hope of a general revival either in home or export trade in the near future. Everything indicated that we might still have to wait a year or even longer.

NO END IN SIGHT OF SHIP STRIKE, SAY MESSAGES

Canvassers Out Here Trying To Recruit House Boys From Foreign Homes

Hongkong seamen and cargo carriers who quit work a month ago demanding higher wages and other concessions are holding more or less firmly to their demands and while ocean traffic in and out of the Crown Colony port is not wholly paralysed, as passenger liners as well as a number of coastal vessels are continuing service, the strike is by no means over, according to messages received yesterday.

Negotiations that the Hongkong Government opened with the strikers through the Seamen's Union definitely have been broken off, say these messages, because the union is refusing to recede from its demands.

Hundreds of workers to take the place of the strikers have been shipped from Shanghai to Hongkong and it is only by means of these Chinese, who in the main are from Ningpo, and with the aid of Filipinos that vessels are being dispatched from Hongkong.

It became known yesterday that the agencies recruiting strikebreakers here are going to extreme lengths in their efforts to get skilled workers to man idle ships at Hongkong. Foreign residences are being canvassed by groups of Chinese offering attractive terms to house boys and coolies to quit their positions in homes here and go to Hongkong to replace strikers. Some little success is attending this particular effort which has resulted in disorganising domestic staffs.

As a measure to end the trouble in Hongkong the proposal to appoint an Arbitration Board was the question that the Hongkong Government took up with the Seamen's Union.

The union, according to these reports, insists that the proposed Arbitration Board include at least two of its members and that the increase in wages demanded be given until the arbiters render their verdict. They also sought recognition by the Hongkong Government of the union. Failing to obtain any amelioration of these demands, the Government has broken off all relations.

More and more of the large passenger vessels and coastal boats which have been tied up at Hongkong because of the strike are getting away, manned by crews of Filipinos or Ningpo Chinese. The Ningpo Association committee declared at a meeting

ROMA, BIG U.S. AIRSHIP, BURSTS; 40 MEN KILLED

Dirigible Explodes And Burns At New-Port News

HITS LIVE WIRE

Ten Of Crew Rescued, Badly Burned

(Reuter's Service)

Newport News, Feb. 21.—The army dirigible Roma recently purchased from Italy, with a gas capacity of over a million cubic feet, exploded today and descended in flames while crossing Hampton Roads. Ten persons were rescued, though badly burned, out of a crew of fifty.

The War Department announces that the Roma was engaged in trial flights following the installation of Liberty motors, replacing the Italian engines with which the airship had been originally equipped.

Eye-witnesses state that the Roma was flying at a height of from 600 to 1,000 feet when a wisp of smoke appeared and the craft suddenly fell obliquely to the earth, striking one of the naval base barracks. The men leapt out, some being equipped with parachutes. The passenger cars broke away and fell to the ground, pinning a dozen men underneath.

The official explanation says that the vertical controls were carried away, causing the machine to nosedive and strike a high tension electric wire en route, thus setting fire to the vessel.

RECOVER THIRTY DEAD

Thirty bodies have been recovered, Commander Ball being among the killed. Two pilots, Reed and Burt, are among the survivors. The occupants included seven civilians.

The Flying-Captain at Hampton Roads reports that if Roma had been able to keep going another yard, she would have avoided the wire with which she collided and reached the water for which she had been headed.

A survivor stated that the airship was only 200 feet up when the controls were carried away. The immediate throwing out of the ballast failed to avail to avert a nose-dive.

GEN. WU REMAINS FIRMLY OPPOSED TO BIG SALT LOAN

Emissaries From Peking Fail To Change His Attitude

(Chung Mei News Agency)

Peking, February 18.—General Wu Pei-fu is still insistent upon opposing the $96,000,000 salt surplus loan and emissaries sent by Finance Minister Chang Hu to endeavor to persuade him to change his attitude report complete failure according to information from Chinese sources. General Wu is said to have told the delegates that his opposition to the loan was based upon the will of the people and that if Chang Hu continues to ignore public sentiment in this question, he will not hesitate to denounce him in the name of the people.

Chinese circles are very sceptical about the finance minister's advocacy of full publicity for the loan and feel that while he may favor it now, when once the loan is actually floated he may not be so ready to make public all the details concerning it. It is a question of some doubt whether he will give full publicity to the use to which the securities of the old loans are put after they have been surrendered to the Government upon the completion of the almagamation loan.

These securities range in value from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000. The opinion is expressed that if Chang Hu really wishes to gain the confidence of the people he must promise full publicity concerning the loan from the beginning to the end.

It is also reported that Chang Hu yesterday visited President Hsu and explained to him the difficulties which he was facing in his financial policy and asked the president to use his influence in allaying opposition to the loan. President Hsu promised to telegraph to the various provincial authorities and explain the whole situation to them.

SENATOR JOHNSON MAY START FIGHT ON PACIFIC PACT

California Not Satisfied With Some Of Its Provisions

(Reuter's Special Service)

London, Feb. 21.—United States administrative circles are stated to be perturbed by what is believed to be the intention of Senator Johnson to move an amendment to the Naval Treaty reserving to the United States the right to fortify the Philippines and to establish naval bases there.

Last week he raised the question in the Foreign Relations Committee of whether, by relinquishing the right to fortify Guam and the Philippines, while Japan was permitted to fortify her own coasts and Great Britain was under no restrictions regarding Singapore the United States did not seem to be placed at a disadvantage. He intimated that the opinion of American naval experts would have to be taken before he would consent to the ratification of the Treaty.

Senator Johnson has now made known that he regards this as a very serious matter, which must be carefully investigated. Should he succeed in amending the Treaty, it is feared that it will be imperilled as Japan might refuse to ratify it owing to the importance she attaches to the fortifications agreement.

Meanwhile it is reported from Washington that American naval experts do not share Senator Johnson's views and think that the bargain struck is as advantageous to the United States as it is to Japan. It is pointed out that in any event some years would have to elapse and millions would have to be spent before the Philippines could be made a first class base.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Feb. 21.—The Chicago Tribune in an editorial article with reference to Senator Johnson's attitude (telegraphed earlier) declares that a strong naval base at Singapore assures a police force within easy striking distance of the Pacific. Any threat against the Philippines from an Asiatic Power would be as menacing to Australasia as to America. The paper suggests to Mr. Johnson that the noise he hears across the Pacific of hammering in the shipyards of Singapore is made by a friend and assures him that a strong naval base at Singapore is an added insurance that the Pacific Treaty will not be violated.

ALL ENGLAND EXCITED ABOUT MARY'S WEDDING

Full Dress Rehearsal Of Various Processions Is Held

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 21.—As the Royal wedding day approaches, public interest grows intense. Crowds have waited every day recently outside Buckingham Palace in the hope of getting a glimpse of the Princess, who is very busy receiving deputations, conveying gifts from the provincial towns and public bodies of all sorts.

There was a gathering even at 7 o'clock this morning on the occasion of the full dress rehearsal of the various processions, namely, the Queen's, then the King's with Princess Mary from Buckingham Palace and Queen Alexandra's from Marlborough House.

The idea is to time them so that the return to Buckingham Palace from the Abbey, will be one continuous procession.

Royal equerries, the State Chamberlain and many Guards officers watched proceedings, in which cavalry participated.

London, Feb. 21.—The fund of £2,684 subscribed by the officers and men of the Navy has been handed to Princess Marry who, after purchasing a personal wedding present, will devote the remainder to the Seamen's Orphan Homes.

UCHIDA EXPLAINS PREFERENCE FOR MERKULOV REGIME

Foreign Minister Tells Why He Deals With Vladivostok

(Dalia News Agency)

Harbin, February 17.—At a meeting of the Budget Commission of the Japanese Parliament, Mr. Uchida, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, made the following statement:

"The Japanese Government has not recognised officially the Vladivostok Government, but as this Government is de facto controlling the coast of the Maritime Province, the Japanese Government prefers to negotiate with it instead of the Chita Government on the fishing rights of the Japanese."

Dairen, February 17.—Owing to Mr. Uchida's statement that all negotiations on the fishing convention will be carried on with Merkuloff, the Russian Delegation here has forwarded a protest to Mr. Matsushima pointing out the non-recognition of any such transactions by the Government of the Far Eastern Republic. The protest says that the Far Eastern Republic refuses to accept any responsibility for any loss of the Japanese fishermen in consequence of the transactions.

Dr. Petroff, Chairman of the Russian Delegation in Dairen, has handed to the Chairman of the Japanese Delegation a note containing the final answer of his Government to all points in the general agreement. No understanding has yet been reached by the delegation regarding the evacuation of the Saghalien province.

The Russian Delegation is insisting upon the immediate realisation of the assurances made by Japan at the Washington Conference, as well as on the formation of commissions for the revision of the fishing convention and for the drafting of a plan of evacuation from the entire Russian territory.

SERVANTS MEET TO PROTEST TO REGISTRY PLAN

Two hundred and twenty boys and coolies employed by foreign families and firms met on Tuesday evening and passed a resolution denouncing the proposed registration of servants as suggested by certain foreign women's associations in Shanghai. The meeting decided to address letters to the women's societies concerned, requesting the withdrawal of the proposal, to organise all servants in foreign employ for the purpose of resisting registration and to ask for moral support from all labor unions.

Senate Debates Pact Reservation

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Feb. 21.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today had a lengthy debate on the proposed reservation to the Pacific Treaty that "no adjustments or understandings reached under its provisions should be binding without the consent of the Senate."

It is reported that the majority of the Committee is inclined to approve the reservation.

No End In Sight Of Ship Strike, Say Messages

Monday that they will not take sides in the dispute in the South.

Plans are reported to be well under way for the replacement of Chinese seamen on Japanese ships engaged in the trade between Penang, Saigon, Rangoon, Bangkok, Batavia and Sumatra with Indian and Javanese seamen.

Some of the Dutch ships have succeeded in getting away from Hongkong by engaging Javanese and Malayan seamen. In point of seamanship, the Malayan and Javanese are below the Chinese, but as they are lower paid, they are being considered favorably by ship-owners.

The crew taken to Hongkong Saturday by the Empress of Japan for the Empress of Russia is reported to have arrived this morning. The Empress of Russia will sail from Hongkong for Shanghai tomorrow noon and will arrive off Woosung Saturday. She sails the same day for Vancouver. A large passenger list has been booked from Hongkong, but the Empress will carry no cargo from that port.

The Empress of Asia is due in Hongkong Friday and will go into dry dock there. She sails from Hongkong March 23.

The Keystone State sailed yesterday morning for Seattle, while the Silver State, another of the Admiral Line vessels, is sailing today for Hongkong. The Pinetree State sailed Saturday from Seattle and is expected in Shanghai on March 9.

Chihli Chief More Conciliatory Over Faction Squabble

The Fengtien-Chihli conflict appears to be more serious as the Mukden troops are being concentrated round the Great Wall, according to the Dah Tong News Bureau. Tsao Kun, the Chihli warlord, however, is beginning to show a conciliatory attitude and has agreed to permit Chu Chi-chien, Liang Shih-yi's protege, to become premier thus yielding to Chang Tso-lin's desire to have a Chiaotung man for the premiership. Tsao Jui, his brother, will soon leave Tientsin for Mukden to make the offer.

Pan Fu, former Acting Minister of Finance, is once more active in Peking. His mission is an attempt to discover some alleged irregularities in the new issue of bonds amounting to $96,000,000 secured by the salt surplus. He will make use of his discoveries as a measure of retaliation against the Chiaotung clique which has accused him of corruption during his tenure of office, it is claimed.

Dr. W. W. Yen, the Foreign Minister, will consent to act as premier during the second grant of leave of absence given to Liang Shih-yi. President Hsu has assured him that during the next ten days, some solution will be made concerning the Cabinet question.

GEN. CHANG SEEMS TO BE PREPARING TO START FIGHT

Military Preparations Being Pushed At Mukden

(Chang Mei Service)

Peking, Feb. 20.—Military preparations at Mukden are being pushed with energy, according to reports received here from persons in the confidence of Marshal Chang Tso-lin, who say it is the intention of the Warlord of Manchuria to make General Wu Pei-fu either fight or get out of politics in the near future.

Reports that Marshal Chang intends to withdraw the Mukden troops in Chihli to a point outside the Great Wall are described by the same source as "ridiculous." The troops controlled by Marshal Chang Tso-lin have been paid in full to date and are being equipped and trained to the minute with the possibility of a spring campaign in view. Also Chang Tso-lin is detaining railway cars at Mukden whenever possible and is gradually acquiring a supply of rolling stock sufficient to transport his first detachments and their equipment South when the time comes.

The new arsenal at Mukden, which was recently completed for Chang Tso-lin by Danish engineers and contractors, with largely Danish equipment is now working day and night making ammunition and guns. Everything, in fact, is being done at Mukden to prepare the Manchurian armies for a Spring or Summer campaign on a large scale, and no pains are being spared in order to make this campaign a success.

The Danish-built, equipped and managed arsenal was not completed until the end of last year; and the news of its existence, which was kept dark for a long time, is stated to have created a considerable flurry in Peking diplomatic circles when it leaked out.

As there appeared to be no legal ground for preventing Danes or other nationals from erecting arsenals on Chinese territory for the use of Chinese militarists, and as, furthermore, the arsenal was completed and doing business before the Diplomatic Body found out about it, Peking's foreign diplomatists did nothing beyond getting a little excited.

NOTICE

THE General Public is hereby notified that supplies of "IXL" IODISED THROAT TABLETS, the remarkable new throat remedy that is now being so largely and successfully prescribed by physicians in Great Britain, are now being made available for residents in China.

Representing the latest advance in scientific throat medication, these tablets, by reason of their Iodine content, are indubitably superior to any other pastilles or tablets that have yet been evolved by scientific research.

Their use is positively indicated in all cases of Sore and Ulcerated Throat, Hoarseness, Quinsy, Throat Catarrh, Tonsilitis, Laryngitis, etc.

As a highly efficient throat disinfectant when epidemics are rife, IODISED THROAT TABLETS undoubtedly excel any other preparation yet put upon the market.

No malignant Diptheria, Influenza, or other germ can find lodgement on a membranous surface that has been subjected to the peculiar antiseptic influences of these tablets.

Pleasant to the palate, and allaying all irritation, each tablet, as it slowly dissolves in the month, releases, in harmonious combination with other fine quality medicaments, a specific quantity of the pure Tincture of Iodine, to soothe, heal, and sterilize the inflamed area.

WARNING:—All cartons of the genuine and original IODISED THROAT TABLETS bear the "IXL" trade-mark, and each tablet is embossed with the letter "A." Reject feeble substitutes.

All first-class chemists supply "IXL" IODISED THROAT TABLETS, but outport residents meeting with any difficulty in obtaining them are invited to communicate direct to the Distributing Agent, at 9A Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

SOVIET'S ENVOYS TO GENOA TOLD TO BE CAREFUL

Warned To Examine Closely Every Proposal Offered

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, February 14.—The plenary session of the newly-elected Moscow Soviet began with a report on the proceeding and the result of the re-elections, in which 2,274 organisations and 335,000 citizens had participated. It was unanimously decided to confer honorary membership of the Moscow Soviet upon some persons now confined in the prisons of the capitalistic states. After this Mr. Kameneff, the Chairman, made in his speech the following statement:

"The Genoa Conference will be the arena of the most various pretensions and aspirations, and we have to set against them our claims signed by the laboring people of Russia. We may hope that the proposals forwarded by the laboring masses will be accepted, and that our freedom and independence attained after four years of hard labor and continuous sufferings will not be put on sale at the diplomatic table of Genoa.

"Our representatives will tell the Conference that we want peace to rebuild our country. We shall prove that our motherland built up by workmen and peasants is indeed a powerful and well-administered country and has broader perspectives of culture than the capitalistic states."

Mr. Tchicherin in a short speech said:

"The forces of capital of the whole world regard the coming Genoa Conference as an opportunity of slipping a noose around our neck and of penetrating deep into the country of working people by peaceful means; now that the armed offensive has proved a failure. All the designs which our adversaries are preparing to take to Genoa are of one desire, that of turning the workmen's and peasants' Russia into a dependent colony. With this tendency we shall struggle by means of the same consistency and firmness which enabled us to overpower all attempts and schemes directed against us."

Following is the instruction given by the Soviet to the delegation appointed to represent Russia at the Genoa Conference:

"The Moscow Soviet, newly-elected according to a more democratic election-law than that yet applied by any other country, fully approves the policy of the Soviet Government which at length has made it necessary for the European Powers to open formal parleys with the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic.

"The Moscow Soviet also approves of the personnel of the delegation and instructs it to remember that at the Conference it has to represent the laboring masses of Russia, which have thrown off the yoke of property and capital and which have no pretensions to be compensated for our losses at the expense of other nations' labor.

"We cannot sacrifice a single drop of our sweat for the increase of the wealth of persons exploiting the misery of their people. The Moscow Soviet instructs the delegation to examine carefully every proposal which can bring even the least relief to the working people of the whole world."

(Chung Mei Service)

Paris, Feb. 16.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha has announced that the Angora Government will refuse to accept any decision affecting Turkey that shall be taken at the Genoa Conference unless a Turkish Delegation be admitted to the Conference.

HARVEY SAYS U. S. GAVE NOTHING AT ARMS CONFERENCE

Envoy Tells British Gains Outweighed Losses

(China Press Service)

London, Feb. 21.—Many newspapers are making editorial use of the lofty sentiments expressed at the Pilgrims dinner in honor of Mr. Balfour and the other British delegates to the Limitation of Armaments Conference. Among the statements of the speakers which have furnished material for editorial comment especially was that of Colonel Harvey who said:

"Much has been said about the sacrifices by various powers best known for their generosity, thus implying the United States. I must state that the United States deserves no credit for what she scrapped. Many costly warships were abandoned and vast projects of fortifications dropped, but these involved no sacrifice.

"By such disposition of the plans, taxes were released—millions for the present and billions for the future—which will be spent in the development of land and industry."

Of the utterances of Mr Balfour which attracted most attention was his statement:

"The representatives of nine powers look back on the 16 weeks of the Conference with unmixed satisfaction. Everyone gained, and every representative was able to claim that in some way or other, he had furthered the interests of the world and thereby those of his own people."

(China Press Service)

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Admiral Baron Kato in making his farewell to the United States said:

"I shall have the pleasure of reporting to my government that America and Japan understand each other better than for a quarter of a century."

He said that the Japanese delegates greatly regretted the failure to reach an agreement in accordance with the original American plans, but were gratified with the success of the limitation of auxiliary craft and the fixing of the maximum size of guns.

Kato with Hanihara and Major General Tanaka is to sail homeward on the Taiyo Maru tomorrow.

Symphony Concert To Aid Famine Victims Planned For March 2

The famine stricken children of Russia are to be the beneficiaries of a grand symphony concert to be given at the Town Hall, Thursday, March 2, under the auspices of the Russian Famine Relief Fund, a Shanghai organisation devoting its energies toword relieving suffering among the children of the famine districts in Russia.

The program which was announced yesterday includes several artists well known locally. The Municipal Orchestra, under the direction of Maestro Mario Paci will furnish the concert music.

The program includes: Esther Valazzi, dramatic soprano, from Scala, Milan; Luisgi Valazzi, basso, from Theater Constantz, Rome; Mme. S. de S. Pittard, pianist, from Petrograd Conservatoire, who will play Liszt's "Rhapsodie Hongroise," Schumann's "Polanaise" and other pieces and M. A. Foa, violinist.

Mr. Pearce Named Shanghai Delegate At Prince's Reception

Mr. E. C. Pearce, president of the Shanghai branch of the Royal Society of St. George's and former chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Council, will be one of the two representatives to be sent from this city to participate in the reception of the Prince of Wales at Hongkong, according to announcement made at the annual general meeting of the St. George's Society Tuesday evening.

The reports of the Society for the past year showed that $5,771.87 has been expended in charitable work—more than five times the sum expended in 1920. The Society's membership now stands at 673, the new members coming in last year numbering 144.

The following were elected to the committee for the ensuing year: Messrs. E. G. Barrett, A. W. Brankston, E. Brook, Capt. A. W. Dixon, R. T. Fearon, G. P. Forster, E. F. Goodale, O. M. Green, Col. R. Marr Johnson, G. A. Johnson, K. H. Martin, R. C. Phillipo, C. R. Slowe, A. J. Welch, and E. L. Allen.

TO EXPERIMENT IN TREATING OF CHINA'S LEPERS

Experimental work among the lepers of China will be undertaken by Dr. W. W. Peter, who has just returned to Shanghai from the Philippines, where he made a study of the work being done at the Culion Leper Colony. Dr. Peter brought back with him through the courtesy of General Leonard Wood and the Philippine Public Health Service, ten litres of the ethyl ester of chaulmoogra oil, the newly discovered drug being used in treatment of the disease.

"Within the next few years a big offensive is to be launched against leprosy in the Orient," said Dr. W. W. Peter.

"About fifteen hundred lepers in the world's largest colony of five thousand at Culion are already under the treatment with ethyl ester of chaulmoogra oil. The Governor General of the Islands has ordered one of the doctors and a chemist who have been interested in this new drug to proceed to Culion, there to establish a laboratory for checking up the still more extensive treatment proposed. Medical men throughout the Orient will be interested in the plans of the government of the Philippine Islands to make an attempt to wipe out this disease from the Islands."

He said that although the Culion Leper Colony with over 5,000 lepers was said to be the largest in the world, China in all likelihood has far more lepers than this number.

"It may not be apparent that this is the case," he said, "because with us lepers are allowed to roam at large. Were they all gathered in one colony the number would be found to be astonishingly large."

OVER $30,000 ALREADY SECURED IN Y.M.C.A. DRIVE

The Y.M.C.A. $60,000 financial campaign went beyond the halfway line last night when the results of the various teams were turned in for the week-end calculation, and announced before an enthusiastic audience at Martyrs' Memorial Hall.

The returns of the 12 teams totalled $30,224. The Liberty team, captain K. S. Lee, stock and exchange broker, led with 4,337 points. The Righteousness team, headed by Foreign Commissioner Hsu Yuan, is second with 2,630, while third honors went to the Reconstruction team captained by Mr. T. T. Pan of Jardine, Matheson and Co., registering 2,272 points to its credit.

More than 500 members and their friends thronged the hall at 8 o'clock to receive the results of the campaign. A program of entertainment preceded the announcement. An interesting film, a remarkable exhibition of Chinese diabolo spinning and gymnastic demonstrations by students of the Northern District Public School, Haining Road, were attractive features of the amusement end, while Dr. C. T. Wang, president of the Association and Mr. Wang Pao-tsen, ex-parliamentarian and secretary of the Russian Famine Relief Committee, gave brief addresses.

Dr. Wang urged his audience to work hard in the campaign in order that the goal may not only be reached but be passed. Mr. Wang made an eloquent appeal for the support of the association for the forthcoming campaign to be conducted for the Russian famine relief fund.

The combined results of the last two weeks were as follows:

| | Total |
|---|---|
| Liberty, K. S. Lee | 5,200 |
| Love, S. Y. Wong | 3,570 |
| Endeavor, M. L. Chow | 3,456 |
| Righteousness, Hsu Yuan | 3,217 |
| Peace, C. C. Nieh | 2,591 |
| Co-operation, S. Y. Wong | 2,469 |
| Reconstruction, T. T. Pan | 2,272 |
| Sacrifice, E. S. Ling | 2,039 |
| Emancipation, M. N. Yang | 1,680 |
| Humanity, S. Z. Zee | 1,180 |
| Service, C. C. Woo | 1,531 |
| Equality, K. F. Chang | 1,019 |
| Total | 30,224 |

Each point represents $1.

The third week of the campaign closes next Wednesday evening and the final closing will take place on March 4. The goal of the effort is $60,000 and 2,750 members. As compared with the results of last year, last night's figures show that the present campaign is about 50 percent in advance of the results at the same time last year. The corresponding figure was $21,412.

Those in charge of the drive say that the result so far is most encouraging. It is still anybody's race; and keen competition is being shown by all the teams, more so than in previous years. Many participants who have not yet been able to take an active part are anxious to make a strong showing during the remaining ten days of the campaign.

is a popular way of describing anything which has proved to be of exceptional value, and may therefore be employed to describe that old and favourite preparation—Beecham's Pills. The ever-increasing army of men and women who have experience of this excellent medicine generally use some such phrase as "priceless" or "Worth a guinea a box" when speaking of Beecham's Pills. This is certainly high praise. But it is well-merited. Beecham's Pills have proved, times out of number, to be a "priceless" preparation in the treatment of digestive ailments. They bring relief; they safeguard the health; they effect remarkable cures. All who suffer in any way from biliousness, sick headache, constipation, impaired appetite, and the resulting loss of energy and want of tone should take

Owing to an unfortunate contretemps with the electric lights at the Country Club on Monday, opportunity for the votes of thanks it had been proposed to put at the close of Professor Siren's lecture was lacking. As well as to the lecturer himself, the most cordial thanks of the B. W. A. Art and Literary Sections should have been offered to Miss Lucille Douglass who, in co-operation with Mr. Van der Bergh, was in the main responsible for the beautiful lantern slides that were shown; to the Committee of the Country Club for their greatly appreciated hospitality; and to Dr. Stafford Cox and Mr. Strehlpeek who not only lent of their valuable collections (which in the case of highly fragile and perishable Chinese pictures is always an exceedingly generous action), but whose combined knowledge and selection created an exhibition of rare artistic merit. It might be added that the course of lectures given by Dr. Cox to members of the B. W. A. Art Section prepared the way for a keenly intelligent interest both in Professor Siren's address no less than in the fine specimens of Chinese paintings which illustrated it.

Piece Goods Theft Case Is Adjourned

Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Li of the Mixed Court yesterday refused to dismiss charges brought against five men accused of stealing and receiving Tls. 7,000 worth of piece goods belonging to Messrs. Bradley and Co. which were removed from Holt's Wharf. The case was adjourned for a special hearing.

Four of the men charged are talleymen and checkers employed by the wharf and by Bradley and Co. They are charged with the theft. The fifth man is a broker who is alleged to have assisted in disposing of the goods. The latter is defended by Mr. F. J. Schuhl and other defending counsels are Mr. P. M. Linebarger, Mr. R. S. Haskell, Mr. L. K. Kentwell and Dr. Fischer. Mr. Lipson Ward appeared to prosecute and most of the session yesterday was taken up with the testimony of various piece goods dealers in an effort by the prosecution to trace the movement of the stolen cargo. A number of brokers are said to have been involved in the transactions.

ALLIED KING WITH HILL UP WINS CHAMPIONS STAKES AT BIG HONGKONG MEETING

C. R. Burkill Brings Empire Dahlia Home Second; Vida Was Third

Mr. Billy Hill, Shanghai's premier jockey rode Messrs. C. H. Potts and Ellis Hayim's grey pony Allied King to victory yesterday in the Champions Stakes at Hongkong. Sir Paul Chater's Empire Dahlia, ridden by Mr. C. R. Burkill was second, and Honesty Dahlia of the same stable ridden by Frank R. Vida was third.

There were but six starters in the Champions. The two Dahlia ponies were favorites with Allied King fancied next best. The race was exciting from start to finish with the three placed ponies doing all of the running. Allied King won by half a length. Benz, a Shanghai pony, ridden by Mr. Pinkerton finished fourth; Roman Pride (Mr. Moller) was fifth, and Ajax, another Shanghai entry, ridden by Mr. Knoll came in last.

The first prize of the cash sweep, which amounted to $29,078, was won by a Chinese jeweller. Tickets 3295 and 4358, the second and third prizes, respectively have not yet been cashed.

Hill's win on Allied King was his fourth of the day. It was his second win for the afternoon on the pony, having only qualified for the champions by capturing the fourth event, The Ladies' Purse. Hill also placed in the first race, making his record for the day four wins and one place.

Shanghai riders yesterday continued their successes of the first two days. Of the 27 places in the nine races reported riders from here took 21. Burkill won three races yesterday and placed in four others. Knoll took two firsts and two seconds. Moller and Vida placed four times and once respectively.

Of the stables entered Sir Paul Chater's Dahlia stable appears to be taking a big share of the honors. The Dahlia ponies yesterday won twice and placed six times. Mr. Burkill and Mr. Vida to date have brought Sir Paul's mounts home first in eight races, second in five, and third in six.

Yesterday's results follow:

First Race.—The Grand Stand Stakes. Three quarters of a Mile.
1. Sir Paul's ches. Wildfire Dahlia, Mr. C. R. Burkill.
2. Messrs. G. H. Potts' and Ellis Hayim's grey Kiangsu King, Mr. W. Hill.

SPRING RACING PROGRAMS SHOW FOUREARLY MEETS

Advance programs issued yesterday by the Shanghai Race Club, schedules the club's 1922 opening meet for Saturday, March 18, when one hurdle, one steeplechase and seven flat races are to be run. Entries for this first extra meeting will close at the Grand Stand at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 9.

The second and third extra race meetings are booked for April 1 and 8. Each day has a card of nine events, including one hurdle and one steeplechase. Entries for these two meetings close at the Grand Stand Thursday, March 23.

The Spring Race Meeting, the last racing scheduled so far for the first half of the year will be run May 1, 2, 3 and 6. Eleven races are carded on the first three days, commencing at 11:30 a.m., and 10 for the off day, commencing at 1:15 p.m. The fixtures are practically the same as last spring: The Derby to be run on the second day, the Champions sweepstakes on Wednesday and the Grand National Steeplechase on the off-day. Entries for the Spring meeting close at the Grand Stand 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 5.

HONGKONG INTERPORTERS TO PLAY HOCKEY, FOOTBALL AND RUGBY HERE EARLY IN MARCH

Players Arrive March 1; Play Games First Week In March

The Shanghai-Hongkong interport rugby match, the first ever played between the two ports, will probably be played on Tuesday, March 7, according to announcement made yesterday. The Hongkong team will arrive in Shanghai March 1, with 17 men in their squad, 14 from the Services and three civilians. It is also hoped that an interport hockey match and possibly a second football game will be played while the Southerners are in port.

The rugby match, which will be played on the S. C. C. field, by courtesy of the Club committee, will give Shanghai the best test at the game that they have had this season. The visiting players all are competent rugby men, practiced well up, and combining in team work to a nicety. Shanghai will have even a stronger team than that which won over Hankow, better drilled, and fit to play with Hongkong's best.

Should the hockey match be played, Shanghai also should fare well, notwithstanding their defeat in the interport match at Hankow. The advanced season since that game has given the players more practice and better efficiency, and with the finishing of the knock-out tournament just before the Hongkong game, the selection committee will have a wealth of seasoned players to choose from.

Shanghai Rugby men are arranging a big program of entertainment for the Hongkong sportsmen. They will be entertained during their stay here in the homes of local rugby club men, and, aside from the usual dinners, dances, etc., a special A. D. C. performance will be arranged. The duration of the Hongkong players' stay in port is not yet known so no definite program has been announced.

Rugby enthusiasts who are willing to entertain one of the Hongkong team should communicate with Mr. W. G. R. Murphy, Esq., Tel. C. 5007.

Sores from Wrist to Elbow
"Completely Healed"
Our portrait is of Mr. John Kidd, of 17, Mill Lane, Kilmarnock, Scotland, who writes:—"My right arm became covered with sores from wrist to elbow and was useless for over two years. I tried different ointments and so-called cures, but they never did me any good. Then I tried your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and the sores soon began to heal up and power began to come back to my arm, so I persevered with the Mixture, and after having four bottles am glad to say my arm is completely healed up and I have now the full use of it." In a further letter over a twelvemonth later Mr. Kidd writes: "I have had no return of my complaint; my arm is still as sound as a bell and never troubles me in the least."
CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood purifying properties, can be relied upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout. ### AJudicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed. Sold Everywhere

"Have You Succeeded?"

The highest salaried man in the world recently stated that, "I have not succeeded! NO REAL MAN EVER SUCCEEDS. There is always a LARGER GOAL AHEAD." This multi-millionaire has outrun every rival he has ever had. He has not yet reached the goal of his own satisfaction—any more than our Want Ad readers have. But he is efficient. He made his start by wanting something so hard the whole world couldn't stop him.

Are you efficient, Have you an indomitable will?

Watch the opportunities to achieve greater things and secure better positions that are advertised in our Classified Columns.

VICTORIA THEATRE
Commencing on Friday February 24th
SHOWING
"THE WOMAN THOU GAVEST ME"
AND YOU MUST COME AND SEE IT!!

BECAUSE it is the greatest woman story ever written.

BECAUSE its author is Hall Caine, known throughout the English-speaking world as one of the foremost novelists, living or dead.

BECAUSE the story, in book form, has created a furore in this country and abroad.

BECAUSE the picture is filled to the gunnels with color, variety and vivid, sensational scenes.

BECAUSE the players, including Theodore Roberts, Katherine MacDonald, Fritzi Brunette, Milton Sills and Jack Holt, comprise virtually an all star cast.

BECAUSE the director is Hugh Ford, generally recognized as one of the greatest present-day producers of stage plays and screen dramas.

BECAUSE "The Woman Thou Gavest Me" is a Paramount-Artcraft Special, or, in other words, the very best that the brains and money of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation can make.

Exchange Fluctuations
Asia Banking Corporation

February 22, 1922

Spot bar silver was up ¼ d. and forward unchanged in London yesterday. The New York price advanced to 65⅛ cents, and the London-New York cross rate to 440¾.

The official Sterling rate here this morning was raised to 3-3, the Gold Dollar rate to 71¾, the Yen rate declined to 66¼, the Franc rate raised to 780 and the Rupee rate to 251. However, in spite of this change in rates, our market here was on the easy side throughout the day, business being done at about the same rates as those prevailing yesterday.

At the close there were sellers of Sterling at between 3-2¾ and 3-2⅞ for February, between 3-2⅞ and 3-2¾ for March and between 3-2½ and 3-2⅝ for April. There were Gold Dollar sellers at the close at 71½ for February, 71⅛ for March and 70¾ for April. The market was again quiet throughout the day, with no particular feature.

India bought a small amount of silver in London yesterday, and the market there is reported as steady. New York report their market as dull, with little business passing.

Singapore Rubber Auction

Singapore, February 9, 1922

A further slight decline has taken place both in London and New York during the past week, the former being this morning quoted at 8⅝ d. and the latter at 15½ cents. The local market has been remarkably firm with very few sellers, and in consequence thereof only a small volume of business has been transacted.

The weekly auction today was well attended, and there was an all-round sound demand ruling.

Prices, with the exception of those for Standard grades, show practically no change on the week.

887 tons were put up for sale, and 801 tons offered, of which 676 tons changed hands.

Awarded Standard Sheet fetched 30½ cents; which is ½ cent down.

Some lots in cases realised 31 cents. Most buyers, however, were bidding 30 cents, but sellers withdrew at this figure.

Sheet equal to Standard was easily disposed of at 30 cents.

Good average quality was in very good demand, and Off Quality parcels also found ready buyers.

Awarded Standard 1st Latex Crepe was wanted selling at 30 cents, which marks 1 cent down since last sale.

Crope equal to Standard and Off Color Latex sold to an interested market.

Brown, Dark and Barky Crepes maintained their good sale.

Hongkong Slaves Issue Up Again

(Reuter's Service)

London, Feb. 21.—In the House of Commons today, asking for the postponement of questions with regard to the muitsai of Hongkong, Mr. Churchill said that he desired to correspond with the Governor of Hongkong on the matter as he was not entirely satisfied with the gist of the questions and answers on the subject in the House.

Cabinet Crisis To Halt Parley

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Feb. 21.—Advices from Rome state that opinion in Italian circles is that it is unlikely that the Genoa conference will open on March 8. All efforts to compose a Giolitti-Orlando cabinet seem to have failed, as the result of the opposition of the Populist Party.

The Messagero states emphatically that the veto of the Populists renders impossible any combination with Signor Giolitti as head.

PALE LIPS ARE A WARNING OF ANEMIA OR THIN BLOOD
Take Dr. Williams PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

Anaemia is a dangerous condition either in man or woman because thin watery blood means lessened power of resistance to disease. Rheumatism not only causes but follows anaemia. If you suffer from Indigestion most likely your blood, and not your stomach, is chiefly at fault. Nervous Debility, loss of energy and spirit, result from poverty of blood. In all these cases the right treatment is tonic, and because they are so wonderful a tonic for the blood and nerves no better remedy exists than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This is why their reputation is worldwide and a third-of-a-century old. They will help you as they have helped others. Chemists sell them, or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Washington The Soldier

AT the age of 53 Washington said of war: "My first wish is to see this plague of mankind banished from off the earth." Less than two years before he had made his farewell to the army he commanded for more than eight years, resigned his commission, and been "translated to private life," to use his own expression. Of the horrors of war as the world has since known them Washington had no conception. He could never have dreamed of such carnage as mankind has witnessed in the great war, nor would he have believed in a time when civilised men would fight in armies of millions with more than the craft and cruelty of savages.

The soldier's profession attracted Washington in his youth. War might be glorious. The age was still heroic. "My inclinations," he wrote at the age of 23, "are strongly bent to arms." In his French and Indian campaigns he delighted in the shock of conflict and its hazards. Of his experience in a skirmish he wrote: "I heard the bullets whistle, and, believe me, there is something charming in the sound." He was proud of the four balls that passed through his coat and that two horses were killed under him when he served without glory, but also without fear, under Braddock.

If Washington was not "the bravest of the brave," as Ney was described to be, he was intrepid and even rash in action, exposing himself too much for the comfort of his officers. They dealt with a man full of choler when they remonstrated with him. "Sir, had you better not step back a little?" ventured Colonel Cobb at the siege of Yorktown. But all the Colonel got for his concern was: "Colonel Cobb, if you are afraid, you have liberty to step back." Cowardice, in the General's view, was a weakness never to be excused. In fact, he could not understand it. No one will ever paint—yet it would make a spirited picture if patriotism could stand it—the behavior of General Washington when he rode among the flying New Englanders, who broke as the British landed on Manhattan, when he struck at officers with his cane, "damned them for cowardly rascals," and beat the running soldiers with the flat of his sword, until in his paroxysm he was near capture by the enemy, from whom he was saved by one of his aids snatching at his bridle and swinging his horse around. And at Monmouth how furiously he swore when Lee's troops began to retreat! No American commander ever had greater scorn for the craven, or heaped expletives upon him with freer use of robust adjective.

A soldier is a soldier in any age. To imagine Washington living today is to see him as stern a disciplinarian as Joffre or Haig or Pershing, and just as determined that official rank should not be obtained by influence, that the incompetent must be weeded out. Humane as the General was, he once erected a gallows forty feet high to encourage his militiamen to stay with their commands. He flogged deserters and looters, and ached to do it with his own hand, which was big and sinewy. He "broke" Colonels right and left. "I will not," he declared, "have any gentleman introduced from family connection or local attachments to the prejudice of the service." A family name had as little influence with him as with Kitchener. Washington found the militia as a rule a poor lot, either as soldiers or patriots. "The dependence," he wrote, "which the Congress have placed upon the militia has already greatly injured, and I fear will totally ruin, our cause."

What the Father of the Country would have thought of destructive criticism in the great war may be judged by his reply to those who indulged in political complaint about his leadership: "I can assure these gentlemen that it is a much easier and less distressing thing to draw remonstrances in a comfortable room by a good fireside than to occupy a cold, bleak hill and sleep under frost and snow, without clothes or blankets."

As commander in such a campaign as that conducted in France, Washington would sometimes follow Fabian policies, "nibbling," as Joffre would say, and at other times he would be found striking hard; although it must be admitted that he deferred too much to war councils of officers. The Revolutionary conflict he held to be "a war of posts." He said, as the war went on, "I am well convinced myself that the enemy long ere this are perfectly well satisfied that the possession of our towns while we have an army in the field will avail them little." Yet if he could be accused of Fabian tactics, Washington could take the offensive vigorously, as at Princeton and Trenton, and again at Germantown. There is one thing we can be sure of—that in a war to save democracy he would be as stout-hearted as Clemenceau, as inflexible as Lloyd George, as obstinate as Mr. Wilson, and that he would stake everything on winning a great victory over any military oligarchy before negotiating to banish the "plague of mankind" from the earth.

Hurt by neglect, with ne'er a hand to save,
Pours out her sorrows to some wily knave;
With sympathy he gains fair friend ship's name,
What follows? Misery, disgrace and shame.

Strikes with sure force and holes the brilliant red.
In mystic sounds the game the markers call,
And nimbly spot with care the wretched ball;

Europe Without Peace -:- By Ex-Premier Nitti

BY T. R. YEARRA

L'europa Senza Pace (Europe Without Peace). By Francesco Nitti, ex-Premier of Italy. Florence: R. Bemporad and Figlio, Publishers.

Two years ago John Maynard Keynes, through his sensational "Economic Consequences of the Peace," made himself the center of a babel of enthusiastic approval and bitter denunciation. Now Francesco Nitti, Premier of Italy in 1919 and 1920— and like Keynes, a specialist in economics and finance—comes forward with a book backing up Keynes to the limit, denouncing the Treaty of Versailles as unjust and impossible of execution, prophesying utter ruin to Europe and dire misfortune to the rest of the world unless the winners of the war revise the treaty and adopt an entirely different attitude as regards indemnities and international relationships toward those whom they defeated. There is nothing vague about ex-Premier Nitti's ideas for the restoration of Europe; he proposes a definite, concrete scheme for putting her on her feet again—a scheme which, as he sees it, is the only means of saving Europe and, through Europe, the civilisation of the whole world, from ultimate annihilation in a new series of terrible wars.

Having brought the heavy artillery of his disapproval to bear, for chapter after chapter, upon the Treaty of Versailles, the subsidiary treaties flowing from it, and the spirit which created them, the Italian ex-Premier brings forward his scheme for healing the wounds of Europe and arresting the decay of civilisation, which, briefly summarised, is this:

1. Inclusion of the defeated nations, most especially Germany, as members of the League of Nations; dissolution of the Reparations Commission created by the Treaty of Versailles, and transfer of this commission's powers to the League of Nations.

2. Revision of the Treaty of Versailles by the League of Nations, with justice instead of vengeance as a general basis. In order to adapt the League better to this purpose, Nitti calls for revisions in Article V. which as it now stands, requires unanimity among League members before any decisions can be carried out, and in Article X., which now binds the nations forming the League to respect each other's territorial integrity and existing political independence. This article as it stands, declares Nitti, sanctions and stabilises the errors and faults inherent in the Treaty of Versailles and its subsidiary agreements. "Who," he asks, "can honorably guarantee the territorial integrity of present-day Poland?"

3. Guaranteeing of the security of France against future German aggression by means of an agreement between Great Britain and Italy, binding them to go to her aid in case of any such aggression occurring during the next twenty years. This agreement is to be a substitute for the treaty whereby the United States and Great Britain were to go to the aid of France in case of an unprovoked German attack, which treaty, approved by the British Parliament contingent upon ratification by the United States, became null and void when the United States refused ratification.

In addition, ex-Premier Nitti calls for the continuation of the measures already adopted for the disarmament of the nations vanquished in the war, but wants them moderated. The proper instrument, he declares, for the execution of these measures is the League of Nations, to which the broadest powers for this purpose should be delegated.

Regarding the agreement whereby Great Britain and Italy are to guarantee France against German aggression for twenty years, the Italian statesman insists that it must be clearly understood that what Great Britain and Italy are to guarantee is a state of affairs based on right, not on violence. Among the preliminary steps, in addition to general revision of the Treaty of Versailles, which must be taken, as he sees it, before any such agreement can be entered into, are the withdrawal of all allied troops from the Rhine, the adoption of measures of protection for German Austria (making it possible for the latter to join Germany, should she desire), new decisions as to the Sarre region, and the awarding of all Upper Silesia to Germany. Having made this agreement to protect France and having given to Germany the possibility of life and recovery, the next step, says Nitti, is to find some road to harmony between Germany, France and Italy.

4. Cancellation of debts among the allied nations of Europe and the United States. A large percentage of these, Nitti points out, are uncollectable anyhow. Taking up specifically what this cancellation would mean to the United States, the world's greatest creditor, the Italian statesman writes: "The United States is running the risk of seeing the purchasing power of its best customers reduced and annihilated, which, in the long run, constitutes an infinitely greater damage than the renunciation of all the sums due it. An industrial crisis and widespread unemployment are far more damaging than the cancellation of debts which are, to a large extent, uncollectable."

Foreseeing, however, insuperable unwillingness among the European allied nations and the United States to forego completely the sums due them from the loans that they have made and the credits that they have extended to each other, the Italian ex-Premier suggests that Germany be compelled to pay a sum representing 20 percent of these interallied credits over and above the war indemnity imposed upon her, this additional payment to be distributed among the victors in quotas proportionate to the credits due them from their associates. The inter-allied credits, says Nitti, amount in all to about one hundred billion francs (at par, about twenty billion dollars).

What, then, is the total sum to be exacted from Germany, to cover both the indemnity and the above-mentioned payment in lieu of the debts which the Allies are to cancel? John Maynard Keynes, brushing aside as empty dreams all plans to exact hundreds of billions from Germany, fixed the total that it was possible to wrest from her at 50,000,000,000 German marks, gold. Nitti reduces this total to 40,000,000,000 gold marks, but adds to it the sum to be exacted from Germany to offset the cancellation of interallied debts. Putting it in round figures, he declares that the total to be demanded from Germany should be 60,000,000,000 francs (at par, $12,000,000,000). Of this total, the equivalent of 20,000,000,000 france ($4,000,000,000) to be considered as having been paid already by Germany (this being represented by the cession of her colonies, fleet, etc.), so that there remain for her to pay, if the plan suggested by Nitti be adopted, 40,000,000,000 francs ($8,000,000,000), of which 20,000,000,000 francs ($4,000,000,000) represent war indemnity and 20,000,000,000 francs the obligation assumed by Germany to offset the cancellation of the interallied debts. This latter sum is to be paid only after payment of the actual indemnity. Payment of the indemnity proper is to be made by Germany largely in coal and supplies.

Before such a plan can be adopted, declares Nitti, the Continental European nations of the Entente must realise two things: that the United States will no longer grant them any credits under any conditions whatsoever, and that Germany, as matters stand at present, will be unable to pay at all and will collapse, dragging down with her in her ruin the nations that won the war.

5. Resumption of relations with Russia. The Italian statesman holds no brief for the Bolshevist Government; Bolshevism, he is convinced, has proved an utter failure; reconstruction of Russia from within, including the elimination of Bolshevistic principles, is bound to come. But there must be no more interference with Russia from outside, no more backing of men with aims like those of Kolchak, Denikin, Judenitch and Wrangel; no more blockades. And there must be not only resumption of relations with Russia, but co-operation with her in the work of reconstruction.

How? Through Germany, declares Nitti. Without German participation, he insists, there can be no reconstructed Russia, just as there can be no reconstructed Germany unless the Germans are allowed to find a field for their activities in Russia.

"As long as the German people," he writes, "is not associated in the work of reconstruction and feels itself menaced by an anarchic and disordered Poland acting in the name of the Entente—until Germany has security for the future and works with confidence and without rancor—all attempts at restoring Russia will be futile. There is but one simple and fundamental truth here: the only way to Moscow is through Berlin."

That is ex-Premier Nitti's plan—briefly summarised—for curing Europe and saving her from the total collapse which, in his opinion, threatens her if the Entente nations persist in following the course marked out by the Treaty of Versailles. He advances his reconstruction scheme only after careful preparation of his ground in several chapters, wherein he tears the treaty to pieces, calls for an entirely new spirit in the liquidation of the war and utters

How To Avoid Embarrassment

Perhaps you have often wondered what to do in a certain embarrassing situation, what to say at a certain embarrassing time. We have all had our embarrassing moments. We have all longed, at some time or other, to know just what the right thing was to do, or say, or write.

It is not enough to know that one is well-bred. One must see that the strangers one meets every day get no impression to the contrary.

Do you know the little rules of good conduct that divide the cultured from the uncultured? Do you know the important rules of etiquette?

What Would YOU Do—

—if several plates and a chafing-dish were set before you in a restaurant and you did not know how to use them?

—if you arrived late at an entertainment?

—if you overturned a cup of coffee on your hostess' tablelinen?

—if calling for the first time?

—if walking with two women?

Do You Know—

how to introduce men and women correctly?
how to answer a dinner invitation?
how to greet a man or woman acquaintance in public?
how to use table silver properly?
how to word invitations and acknowledgements?
how to avoid blunders at the theatre and opera?
how to do at all times the thing that is absolutely correct and cultured?

These are only a few of the hundreds of situations in which one should know the correct thing to say or do. There is only one sure way to be calm and well-poised at all times. And that is by knowing definitely, positively, the correct thing to do on all occasions.

Etiquette Helps

Correct behaviour is aided by Etiquette. It means knowing just what to do at the right time, just what to say at the right time. It consists of certain important little laws of good conduct that have been adopted by the best circles in Europe and America, and that serve as a barrier to keep the ill-bred out of the circles where they would be embarrassed.

What It Will Do For You

Etiquette will banish all doubt, correct all blunders. It will tell you definitely, without a particle of doubt, what is correct and what is incorrect. It will reveal to you at once all the important rules of conduct that others acquire only after years of social contact with the most highly cultivated people.

Among books on Etiquette we suggest the following titles. We place first the Encylopaedia of Etiquette, which is comprehensive in proportions, rich in illustrations. It comes to you as a guide, a revelation toward better etiquette. It dispels lingering doubts, corrects blunders, teaches you the right thing to do.

Europe Without Peace

again and again, with all the eloquence at his command, the solemn warning that the course now being followed by the nations of the Entente will, with absolute certainty, hurt them as much as or more than the nations which they have vanquished. Putting aside all other arguments for a more constructive and conciliatory policy, for more equity and less revenge, it is this idea of the ultimate damage—and even ruin—to the victors which Nitti consistently reiterates. Vindictive and unjustified from all points of view as the course pursued toward the conquered is, in his opinion, it might possibly be excused, he says, if it hurt none but the vanquished—after all, winning a war gives certain privileges to the winner. But when it involves the direct consequences for the victors as well, he insists, it is utterly unjustifiable and should be discarded without hesitation in favor of something else.

Taking up in detail the situation in post-war Europe, the Italian statesmen calls attention to the astonishing fact that Europe has more men under arms at the present moment than in 1913, just before the outbreak of the war; despite the disarmament of the vanquished nations, the victors and the new nations created as a result of the war remain armed to the teeth. France, he computes, had last Summer a total of 810,000, including officers; whereas Imperial Germany had, just before the war, a standing army of 782,000 officers and men. Belgium's prewar forces have been doubled until they now total 113,500—this for a nation with a total population about equal to that of New York City. Poland, restless and ruined, has under arms, according to Nitti, not less than 430,000 men—quite recently she had 630,000, and may have still nearer the latter than the former total. In Rumania there is an army of 160,000, besides 30,000 carabineers and 16,000 frontier guards—a total of 206,000. Greece, committed to arduous enterprises in Asia Minor, seeks to support an army of more than 400,000 men, according to Nitti's figures. Only Great Britain and Italy have done anything serious in the way of demobilisation, yet even now, he calculates, Great Britain has 201,000 men under arms, whereas, Italy on July 31, 1921, had 369,000, including 56,000 carabineers.

In addition to this terrible burden of armaments, Europe's capacity for production has become greatly diminished, largely because of lack of desire to work on the part of her masses of laborers. And the crisis in international exchange, instead of improving as the war recedes further into the past, becomes acuter every day in many parts of Europe, and international commerce is very slow to fight its way back toward normal.

All of which, the ex-Premier insists, calls for a new spirit of justice and moderation, shorn of all the bitter hatred born of the war. Nitti is proud of having consistently set himself against a vindictive post-war policy. Long before the war, he writes, he felt nothing but hostility for Wilhelm Hohenzollern and the arrogant policy of domination which he incarnated; during the war, he fully understood the necessity for violence in word and deed, in view of the terrible threat held over his own country and the rest of the Entente lands by the furious onslaught of the Teutonic hosts. But now that the war is over, he declares, a radically different policy must be adopted if Europe is to be saved. In his own acts, as he looks back upon them, he has constantly exemplified what that policy should be. He tells how, when he was Premier in Italy, he always favored allowing a delegation of Italian Socialists to visit Soviet Russia, though many other Italians bitterly opposed granting them permission. He, however, believed that nothing could convince them of the failure of Bolshevism so thoroughly as a close view of it at work. The result justified his foresight—the Italian Socialists returned from Moscow profoundly disillusioned as to Bolshevism, and the publication of their Russian impressions was a serious blow to the Italian "Reds." Also Nitti boasts of his opposition to the trial of the Kaiser—"a juridical monstrosity," he calls it, "the most formidable mistake of the Treaty of Versailles."

"At the conferences of Paris and London in 1919 and 1920," he writes. "I did all in my power to prevent the trial of the Kaiser, and I am convinced that, more than all else, it was my attitude in the matter which prevented it."

Nitti believes that on the attitude of the United Staes depends in great measure whether Europe is to be restored or lapse into chaos and barbarism. Just as the Americans were primarily the cause of the Entente victory, so, as he sees it, must they now intervene in order that a just peace may be made to replace the peace of vengeance drafted at Versailles at a time when men were blind with hatred; when Clemenceau, thinking only of having France obtain revenge for the past and security for the future, swept all before him in the relentless pursuit of his object.

Much of the Italian ex-Premier's book is sure to call down upon him vigorous denunciation. He will be damned in France, as well as in the other European lands of the Entente and America. There are plenty of passages in his pages, where, in bluntness and audacity, he seems to have set himself to out-Keynes Keynes. He lays himself open to accusations of pro-Germanism, of callousness for the sufferings of devastated France, of obtuseness in his judgment of right and wrong, guilt and innocence. But he pursues his course without regard to such eventualities; he masses his arguments adroitly; now he is forceful, now persuasive; he is always plausible; and always, on every page, he writes with clarity and precision in a style showing at every step not only one with experience in the highest walks of statesmanship and special knowledge in finance and economics, but also the trained writer. Aside from whatever strength may lie in Nitti's arguments and deductions his book, like that of John Maynard Keynes, seems bound to achieve a certain fame and wield a considerable influence simply and solely because of the clearness, conciseness and forcefulness of its style.

Balfour Warmly Greets American Zionist Envoys

The New York correspondent of the local Zionist organ "Israel's Messenger" writes under date of January 20 last giving a vivid account of the reception given to the delegation of the Zionist organisation of America by Arthur James Balfour, author of the famous declaration made by him in November, 1917. The delegation was received at the British Embassy in Washington.

The tone of warm personal friendship and sincerity, of firm support of Zionism and expressive appreciation of the idealism of the movement which animated Balfour's great speech from beginning to end, more than fulfilled the expectations of those who stood before him, and the greater world without, the report states. All possible doubt as to the consistency of Balfour's friendship for the Zionist cause was forthwith removed.

"Where I stood I then stand now," he declared emphatically, referring to the original issuance of the declaration in 1917.

"I can assure you that my interest in the cause, my belief in its final success, my intense desire to see the ideal of the Jewish Home really rising in happy success before our eyes, has not diminished or suffered any cooling during the years that have elapsed since the original Declaration was made.

"....The hope I then entertained I entertain still; the ideals for which I have striven, are my ideals at this moment and it is a great happiness for me to think that in the work in which I feel so great an interest, there are those like yourselves, able and willing to make some sacrifices, always with the highest hopes and belief in success; to cooperate in the work, and make the first quarter of the Twentieth Century memorable in the history of the world."

What more could Jews desire, the report continues, than this eloquent assurance? After all the machinations of the enemies of Zionism from within and without, the sneers and the slurs, the intrigues and rumors, were not those words, indeed, heartening? No wonder the more than sixty Zionists comprising the delegation rose in a wave of enthusiasm, with such an outburst of applause that shook the walls of the great reception room of the Embassy. One should have seen the venerable philanthropist, Nathan Straus, with face radiant and eyes beaming, jump to his feet like a youth, and join noisily in the enthusiasm! For, hearing the words of Balfour, you were convinced, that insofar as statesmen of his type were deciding the policies of Great Britain, support of the ides of the Jewish National Home meant something more than the pursuance of the ambitions of the British Empire. Here was the Anglo-Saxon spirit nurtured on the Bible and highest culture of modern civilsation expressing the fullest understanding of the Jewish national soul, of the yearning to win back a place in the sun.

"No separation from the Eastern homes of your forefathers, no length of time, no sufferings of the past, no prosperity of the present, has cooled the ardor of patriotism, which desires to see Palestine restored as the home of the Jewish people," he is reported as saying.

Only the day previous, the anti-Zionist organisations of Syrians and Arabs in this country, "The Palestine National League" of New York, had sent Balfour a telegram of protest against Zionism, very possibly in pursuance of the announcement in the press of the forthcoming reception of the Zionists.

Mr. Balfour's remarks, it is expected, will be helpful in facilitating the ratification of the Palestine Mandate. The Council of the League which has been in session since January 10, adjourned without taking action on the Mandate, but will convene again on April 25. At that time, Mr. Balfour may possibly be present as a member of the Council himself.

SPECIAL PROGRAMME
D. W. GRIFFITH
Presents A First National Attraction with
LILLIAN GISH, ROBERT HARRON and the Griffith Players
IN A MOMENTOUS DRAMA OF TO-DAY
"The Greatest Question"

A drama of the way of destiny with "just folks"—plain human beings—fighting the battles of life in their own way. Picturing their virtues and frailties so graphically that you will laugh and cry with them—hate and love with them—as your emotions react, to Griffith's masterly interpretation of humanity's greatest question. And as you see the characters struggling on—sometimes fighting the current of life, sometimes mounting the crest of a wave of success, sometimes helplessly drifting or hurled against a catastrophe that wrecks a life—you'll marvel with Griffith at the greatest question in life.

Poignant Drama—Hilarious Comedy—Stern Tragedy-Love-Life!

Prices: $1.50, $1.00 Booking at Messrs. Moutrie & Co.
